U. S. MAY BREAK WITH GERMANY

ITALIANS SUCCESSFUL IN AUSTRIA--

FRENCH TROOPS MAKE NOTABLE GAINS

London, June 5:—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Amsterdam says. "A message received here from Berlin states that the American colony in Berlin has been warned officially that diplomatic relations between Germany and the United States may be broken off in forty-eight hours and people should hold themselves in readiness to leave Germany."

Denver: Adjutant - General Chase, of Colorado National Guard, today received orders from the war department in Washington to be prepared to mobilize upon an hour's notice, according to reliable information.

Paris, June 5:—The capture by the French of the sugar refinery at Souchez reveals the basement of the factory to be filled with German dead. The German batteries were demolished by our artillery. Furious at the loss of the base for attacking Ablain, the Germans made a desperate attempt to retake it, and at midnight succeeded, but aided by reinforcements and artillery the French again recaptured the lost position. In three weeks the regiments engaged buried nearly 3000 dead Germans and took over 3000 prisoners.

London: Hostile airships dropped bombs on the east and southeast coast of England, but did little damage.

Geneva: Reports received here from Pola, the Austrian naval base on the Adriatic, confirm previous assertions that a large part of the towns and docks and naptha reservoirs which were set on fire during the recent Italian aerial attack were destroyed.

Rome (official): Along the whole frontier of Tyrol and Trentino there have been no important engagements. Continuing our operations against Rovereto we have occupied Mattasone and Val Marbia, in the Val Arsa. Our artillery has silenced the Austrian forts of Luserna and Spitzeverle and seriously damaged the forts of Belvedere and Busaverie. In the middle of Isonza our attack against the spurs of Monte Nero and Tolmein met with great difficulties owing to the nature of the ground and the formidable entrenchments occupied by strong Austrian forces with machine guns and artillery. Results of the fighting fluctuated, but the summit and slopes of Montero are firmly in our possession. Our losses were not serious. The battle continues with fresh troops, with which we hope to obtain a decisive result.

Petrograd (official): In the Shavli region on June 2-3 there were skirmishes of advantage to neither side. On the evening of the 2nd the enemy bombarded Ossowetz with heavy guns. On Narew and the left bank of the Vistula there is nothing to report. In Galicia, on the left of the San—to its confluence with the Wisloka—we had a fresh success, notably at the village of Novosielitza, west of Rudynek, where our troops continued to press the enemy, who was in orderly retreat. On the right bank of the San the enemy continues to attack. Between Przemyel and the Dneister, in the region of Mliwaba we again repulsed the enemy, inflicting heavy losses. During the night of June 2-3 the enemy attempted to rush our entrenchments, but our troops repulsed their assaults, when they retired, abandoning heaps of dead in front of our trenches. In the course of our counter attacks during the night we took 700 prisoners, including 17 officers, and captured some machine guns.

PROGRESS OF THE GREAT WAR DAY BY DAY

London, May 31:—The official note issued by the French war office last night is as follows:

"In Belgium, on the right bank of the Yser canal our troops have occupied all German trenches on Hill 17, in the region of Bilken. We made about fifty prisoners and captured three machine guns, later repulsing a counter-attack. In sector north of Arras the artillery engagement was of a violent nature. We attacked to the southeast of Neuville St. Vaast a large German work called the Labyrinth. The action was hot. We advanced 400 metres and made a number of prisoners, among whom were several officers.

"In the outskirts of Le Pretre forest we carried some new trenches and made fifty prisoners. In Alsace we repulsed an attack, and in forcing back the enemy, carried one of their trenches. We also captured a machine gun and two bombthrowers."

Queenstown: The White Star liner Megantic, with a large number of passengers, from Liverpool to Montreal, was chased by a submarine off the south coast of Ireland this morning, but escaped.

London: The French vessel Dixie has passed here for Brest, having on board the crew of the British steamer Glenlee, 2530 tons, bound from Cardiff for Aden, which was sunk by a German submarine.

Barry, Wales: The British steamship Tullochmoor, 3520 tons, was shelled and sunk by a German submarine today. The crew escaped and landed here. The Tullochmoor was in ballast from Genoa for South Shields.

Rome: An official despatch from Italian general headquarters under date of Sunday says: "In the Giudicaria valley on the Trentino-Tyrol frontier (extreme southwest) we occupied an important position, the summit of Spezzia, near Storo. Our artillery destroyed the armored fort of Luserna, on the Aslage plateau, which hoisted a white flag.

London: The Holt steamer Ping Suey, twice attacked within five hours, escaped to Plymouth.

London: Field-Marshal Sir John French, in an address to the troops who fought in the second battle at Ypres, said that the resistance against the huge concentration of infantry and artillery aided by the dastardly use of asphyxiating gases, has done a great deal to shorten the war.

London: Heavy fighting on Gallipoli peninsula, resulting in a rout of the Turks, is officially reported. Turkish casualties number over 2000, against 300 British.

outlying districts of London. Many fires are reported, but these cannot be absolutely connected with the airship visits. Further particulars will be issued as soon as they can be collected and collated.

Petrograd (official): In Shavli region the Germans continue to resist our offensive with violent fire, but fighting in this district continues to our advantage. On the front between the river Pilica and the Upper Vistula we captured, between May 12 and 24, 109 officers and 18,617 of the rank and file. In Galicia, the battle on the San river also is developing in our favor. Our troops have successfully assumed the offensive, and last night they crossed the river Lubaczowki and occupied the village of Monasterz, inflicting heavy losses on the enemy.

The offensive of the enemy along the front from Jaroslau to Radymno, in an easterly direction, has been stopped by our fire. In the region beyond the Dneister all hostile attacks on Saturday were repulsed with heavy losses to the enemy. On Saturday night our troops assumed the offensive with great success. On this front we captured over 7000 prisoners and thirty quick-firing guns. The enemy began a disorderly retreat. On other sectors of our front there were no important changes during Saturday. GERMAN IDEAS CHANGING

There is evidence of a change in German sentiment towards Great Britain. Not so much is now heard in the Kaiser's country of the slogan "God punish England," which had been for months on every German's tongue; instead, the leading newspapers of Berlin are now publishing—undoubtedly with official cognizance—articles putting forward the view that, while the German army has triumphed in the field, the British navy has maintained its supremacy, and that England, having attained its object to a certain extent, should be willing to make peace with Germany. Such an arrangement, it is pointed out, would require of Germany the sacrifice of many of her ideals, but she would receive in return solid compensations in other directions.

This remarkable statement is made: "The course of events has brought about the curious circumstance that England was today the only friend which Germany possessed, although the friendship was, of course, solely a matter of policy."

It would appear that Germans seriously think of the possibility of detaching Great Britain from the Great Alliance, or such articles as those referred to would never be permitted to appear in newspapers which are under strict government censorship. They seem to believe the agreement by which Great Britain, France and Russia bound themselves to continue their alliance until the end of the war, and to which Italy has now become a party, is only another "scrap of paper" which the British will feel free to repudiate as Germans repudiated the treaties guaranteeing the neutrality of Belgium. The fatuity of this reasoning should be plain, but that it is now put forward in Berlin is only another evidence of the inability of Germany to realize that national honor is a factor in international affairs, and emphasizes the difference between the incapacity of the Germans in world-politics and their great efficiency in military and industrial organization. In the latter respect they are unsurpassed, but their material efficiency is more than offset by the almost unbelievable lack of intelligence shown in their diplomacy.

Notwithstanding German efforts, the war will be prosecuted to the bitter end by all the Allies. What the result of the great conflict will be, beyond the ending of Prussian militarism, it is not yet possible to say, but some interest will attach to the following, which is published in Washington:

"The secret understanding on which Italy joined the Allies involves remaking not only the map of Europe but a regrouping of all the nations on that continent, according to information given by an American who has been in Rome since the war started and who enjoyed peculiarly intimate relations with the diplomats of all nations who were stationed at the Eternal City.

Here are the plans of the Allies as outlined by him, plans that arrange the future of the world:

"1.—The war shall be continued until Germany and Austria are forced to accept whatever terms are given them, and each of the four great powers are pledged to continue the war until it is abandoned by the unanimous consent of the four.

"2.—There shall be no arbitration by Holland, America, or other neutral powers, but the four Allies shall dictate the terms of peace.

"3.—There shall be three classes of nations established in Europe.

"Class A shall consist of Great Britain, Russia, France and Italy.

"Class B shall consist of Belgium, Holland, Servia, Spain, Portugal, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Switzerland, Roumania, Greece and Bulgaria.

"Class C shall consist of Bohemia, Poland, Bavaria, Croatia, Hungary and other minor states into which by racial affinities the German and Austrian empires shall be split.

"Class A states shall guarantee the peace of Europe.

"Class B states shall be entirely independent, but disputes between them must be arbitrated by the class A states.

"Class C shall be independent, but have no soldiers of their own except for police duties and shall make no international treaties either commercial or postal."

These plans, said the Herald informant, have been talked of daily for eight months among the master minds of Europe who are agreed this is the only reorganization that will keep the world at peace, and the politicians intend the soldiers shall fight until they are enforced.

Lloyd George Speaks Out

Declaring that the German victory in Galicia was due to an overwhelming superiority in equipment and that if the Allies in the west had been as well equipped, the Germans would long ago have been driven from France and Belgium, David Lloyd George, the new minister of munitions, made a stirring appeal in Manchester on Thursday to employers and workmen to supply the British army with the necessary munitions. "I come to tell you the truth," he said. "Our Russian allies have suffered a severe setback. The Germans have achieved a great success, but not because of superior valor. The German triumph is due entirely to an overwhelming superiority of shot and shell and munitions and equipment. It was a battle won by the use of their skilled industries, and especially by the superior organization of German workshops."

THE MINER WAR BULLETINS

Rome (official): One of our dirigibles flew over Pola last evening, dropping bombs on the railroad station, a naphtha depot and the arsenal. All the bombs burst with full effect. A big fire started in the arsenal. The dirigible was subjected to a violent fire from the land batteries, but was not hit and returned intact. This morning our destroyer flotilla bombarded a shipyard at Monfalcone, causing considerable damage.

Rome (official): Our forces continue to advance beyond the Tyrol-Trentino frontier. They now occupy the height of Zugna, dominating Bovert. The Austrian fort of Belvedere is weakening. Our infantry is solidly established. Mount Belvedere is in our hands. Our Alpine troops repulsed five attacks of a machine-gun battalion in a defile at Mont Croce, putting the enemy to final flight.

London: A despatch to the Times from Mitylene dated Sunday says: "An enemy submarine shelter has been discovered in the vicinity of Aiwal, on the west coast of Asia Minor, to which place British warships proceeded today. Turkey, while Roumania will declare war against Austria and will cede the disputed territory of Dobrudja to Bulgaria, to remove present dissatisfaction.

London: The government has ordered the registration of all men in Great Britain. This is believed to be preliminary to conscription.

Petrograd: Russian forces have captured 16,600 prisoners in the last three days. The enemy's gas on the Galicia front spreads over twenty miles of ground.

London, June 2:—A Reuter despatch from Athens says it is reported from Constantinople that a British submarine has torpedoed two Turkish transports, one of them laden with troops, in the Sea of Marmora. Later despatches from Athens say that a British submarine sank at Constantinople the Mahusseine steamer No. 26, carrying Turkish troops to the Dardanelles. It is stated that because of the activities of a British submarine, Turkish troops are now being despatched by rail to the Gallipoli peninsula. The correspondent of the London Mail says it is believed there the Germans have ten submarines around the Dardanelles.

London: A despatch to the Daily Mail from Rome says that all the Italian newspapers hail as an accomplished fact the approaching entry of Roumania and Bulgaria into the war.

Paris (official communication): Very spirited actions have extended in the sector north of Arras and we have realized new progress. Notwithstanding several violent counter attacks, the enemy was not able to dislodge us from the trenches conquered in the wood adjoining Aux Noulette.

We have also maintained our gains to the northeast of Chapel of Lorette. The violent engagement of which the sugar refinery at Souchez had been the center for two days, has ended to our advantage, and we have occupied the refinery. During the course of the night the enemy recaptured it, but at daybreak we drove them out and we are masters of the positions in spite of all counter attacks. We have inflicted heavy losses on our adversaries. In the "Labyrinth," southeast of Neuville, we continue to carry one by one the German works. We have made important progress in the northeastern part of that fortified system and have taken about 150 prisoners. All the ground gained has been conceded.

Rome (official): A series of engagements fought on May 30 in Carnicia, west of Montecroce, definitely ended in the defeat of the enemy, who left thirty dead and numerous wounded in front of our lines. During the day of May 31 there were small actions all along the frontier as a result of a new disposition of our advance troops. The bad weather, which continues to create serious difficulties, has not had the slightest effect on the spirits or the health of our soldiers. Ancona authorities state that the damage to the railway bridge over the Maresca near Rimini, on May 24, was not caused by enemy warships but by an Austrian dirigible which was flying the Italian flag.

Washington: President Wilson, in a note to Mexico, orders that peace be restored. This is probably the first step towards intervention.

London: An official announcement in Vienna today is to the effect that Przemyśl has been retaken from the Russians, after a bombardment of twenty days' duration. The fortress was taken by the Russians on March 22, after 201 days' siege. The Austrians surrendered 120,000 soldiers with the city. It is believed the expenditure of men and ammunition by the Austro-Germans in the Przemyśl campaign has exceeded that in the attempts to break through to Calais.

The Russians will make a determined effort to recover the captured stronghold.

Paris (official): In Belgium British troops have carried at the point of the bayonet Chateau Hooze, near Zonnebeke. Southeast of Neuville St. Vaast the Germans have delivered a counter attack in the Labyrinth. We have repulsed them and made progress, taking some prisoners. It is interesting to note that between May 9 and June 1 the French division which took Carancy, Albain St. Nazaire and the sugar refinery at Souchez have made 3100 prisoners, of whom sixty-four are officers, buried the bodies of 2600 Germans, and have themselves lost in killed, wounded or missing 3200 men, of which total two-thirds are slightly wounded. In Champagne the Germans attempted a night attack near Beausejour but were immediately thrown back on their trenches. In the outskirts of Le Pretre forest we repulsed two violent attacks.

Rome (official): On the Tyrol-Trentino frontier there has been no fighting of any importance. Our troops advanced in the Valley of Guidicaria and occupied Storo, and pushed on until near Condino, linking up with the strong Alpine detachments which had made a descent upon the Chiez river from the Valley of Caffaro to Volcomonica.

London: The admiralty announces that one of the several British submarines in the Sea of Marmora sank a large German transport yesterday, in Panderma Bay.

Rome: As the outcome of an effective reconnaissance, extending beyond the head of the Valdogna, we captured some enemy stores. The bad weather which prevailed throughout the whole of the day prevented more extensive operations.

On the Freuli frontier we have occupied the ridge on the left bank of the Isanzo, about six miles to the northwest of Tolmina. On the afternoon of May 31 the enemy tried to dislodge us from the occupied positions by means of violent counterattacks, but was everywhere repulsed.

Amsterdam: German coast batteries near Ostend are put out of commission by bombs from a squadron of Allied aeroplanes which raided the coast on Tuesday.

Rome: A fleet of Austrian aeroplanes has raided the western part of Montenegro, bombarding Scutari, Antivari and various other towns.

Petrograd: The war office says "The battle in Galicia continued on June 1 with the same operation on the whole front, from the Vistula to the region of Nadworna. On the left bank of the lower San our troops, after a powerful advance on June 2, finally pierced the enemy's lines and captured an important position which the enemy had fortified in the region of Rounyich, where we took about 4000 prisoners, some guns and numerous machine guns. Our offensive on front as far as the mouth of the Wisloka continues to develop successfully. As Przemyśl, in view of the state of its artillery and its works which were destroyed by the Austrians before they surrendered, was regarded as incapable of defending itself, its maintenance in our hands only served our purpose until such time as our possession of positions surrounding the town on the northwest facilitated our operations on the San. The enemy, having captured Jaroslau and Radymno and begun to spread along the right bank of river, the maintenance of these positions forced our troops to fight on an unequal and very difficult front, increasing it by about twenty-four miles and subjecting the troops occupying these positions to concentrated fire of the enemy's numerous guns.

"West of Rudnik we almost completely annihilated the second, third and fourth Tyrol regiments. On the Bzura, on Tuesday, the enemy sent out a great cloud of gas which, owing to the change in the wind, was carried back into the enemy's trenches, compelling a large number of Germans to leave the trenches along a wide front. Our fire decimated them as they fled."

Russian forces south of Libau, which is held by the Germans, have cut the latter's line of communication with Mermel, depriving the enemy of connection with his base of supply. The Russians are now attacking Libau.

London: Germany is completing a new submarine every week. A considerable portion of these comes from the Antwerp yards and are being sent to sea under the neutral waters of Scheldt.

Rome: An official statement issued tonight says reports of preparatory movements along the entire front shows that the situation continues to develop in favor of the Italians, who have assumed an effective offensive against the Austrians, who are strongly entrenched and supported by powerful artillery.

London: The Swedish steamer Lapland and the Danish schooner Salvador have been torpedoed in the North Sea by German submarines.

Fired for Disloyalty

A naturalized resident of the Bulkley Valley, who was in charge of a road crew, was so ill-advised as to express approval of the sinking of the Lusitania and make other disloyal remarks. He was promptly and permanently discharged.

Canadian Lead and Copper

The production of lead in Canada for the purpose of the war has now reached 60,000 tons. The proposal to refine copper in this country is still receiving consideration. It has been pointed out that the freight rates on copper matte shipped to the American refineries is $10 per ton besides the duty. Then there is the freight charge and the duty on the refined copper shipped back to Canada. The establishing of a copper refinery in Canada would also serve as a regulator of foreign combines.
